

New Lunch Service

Louisville High School is using a new lunch provider called Taher.

One of the new things Taher is providing is 4 choices for lunch compared to only two last year. Students already have commented that this has been a good improvement for our school. The school is trying to provide a healthier choice for students.

If you want to see the lunch menu visit this link-<http://lpslions.org/student/lunch-menu/>

